

Dr. Deborah Miller – demiller@itsa.edu

Dr. Deborah Miller is Associate Director of the Melton Research Center for Jewish Education at The Jewish Theological Seminary.

She is Project Director and Editor of MaToK, the Bible curriculum for Solomon Schechter Day Schools. Debby has taught every age and grade from nursery through adults and headed the Solomon Schechter Day School of Raritan Valley in East Brunswick, NJ, for 14 years. She also headed congregational schools in Minneapolis, MN; Clark, NJ; and Cranford, NJ.

Debby earned her BA at Barnard College and her doctorate and MA in Jewish education at the William Davidson Graduate School of Jewish Education at JTS.

She is a native of Denver, Colorado, and is married to Rabbi Clifford B. Miller.

Published Works:

Debby is the author of four Jewish children's book. The best-known are:

Only Nine Chairs: A Tall Tale for Passover* (available online)

Fins and Scales: A Kosher Tale (available online)

She also authored My Siddur (available online)

Only Nine Chairs* has been accepted by the PJ Jewish Bedtime Stories and Songs for Families for distribution to young families

Courses:

“Methods of Teaching Prayer”

“Methods of Teaching Bible”