TENETS OF EARLY SECOND TEMPLE
“COMMON JUDAISM”

- Dynasty of King David
- Endogamy
- A new Exodus
- Who is a Jew?
- Jerusalem
- God
A COMPARISON:

TENETS OF EARLY SECOND TEMPLE “COMMON JUDAISM”

- Dynasty of King David
- Endogamy
- A new Exodus
- Who is a Jew?
- Jerusalem
- God

vs Megillat Esther

- Heroes are from Benjamin, tribe of Saul
- Esther is intermarried
- The redemption takes place on Pesach, "we are still slaves of Ahasuerus"
- "Mordecai the yehudi" – no connection to yehudah
- The fortress (birahasuS fo)
- No God; "the terror of the Jews/Mordecai fell upon them"

Assuredly, a time is coming—declares GOD—when it shall no more be said, “As GOD lives who brought the Israelites out of the land of Egypt,” but rather, “As GOD lives who brought the Israelites out of the northland, and out of all the lands to which they had been banished.” For I will bring them back to their land, which I gave to their ancestors.
As I live – declares the Lord God – I will reign over you with a strong hand, with an outstretched arm, with outpoured fury! I will take you out of the nations, and gather you from the lands in which you are scattered, with a strong hand, with an outstretched arm, with outpoured fury. I will bring you to the desert of the nations, and there I will enter into judgment with you, face to face. Just as I entered into judgment with your ancestors in the desert of the land of Egypt, so will I enter into judgment with you!’ – thus speaks the Lord God. ‘I will pass you under the staff and I will bring you under the bond of the covenant. …when I take you out from the nations and gather you from the lands in which you are scattered, and I will be sanctified there in the eyes of the nations. You will know that I am the Lord when I bring you to the land of Israel, to the land which I swore to give to your ancestors.
Awake, awake, garb yourself in strength, O arm of the Lord! Awake as in days of old, generations long gone. Was it not You who hacked Rahab into pieces, who pierced the Dragon? Was it not You who dried up the sea, the waters of the Great Deep, who made the depths of the sea a path for redeemed ones to pass through? So let those liberated by the Lord return, and come to Zion with shouting, eternal joy on their head. Let them attain happiness and joy, since agony and groaning have fled.

THE FEAR OF.... GOD?

Exodus 15:16
There fell upon them dread and anguish; before your arm’s great [power] they grew dumb like stone.

I Samuel 11:7
The terror of the Lord fell upon the people, and they came out as one man.
14:13: All the cities in the vicinity of Gerar were ravaged, for a terror of the LORD seized them...

17:10: A terror of the LORD seized all the kingdoms of the lands around Judah, and they did not go to war with Jehoshaphat.

19:7: Now let the dread of the LORD be upon you....

20:29: The terror of God seized all the kingdoms of the lands when they heard that the LORD had fought the enemies of Israel.
8:17 And in every province and in every city, when the king’s command and decree arrived, there was gladness and joy among the Jews, a feast and a holiday. And many of the people of the land professed to be Jews, for the fear of the Jews had fallen upon them.

9:2-3 Throughout the provinces of King Ahasuerus, the Jews mustered in their cities to attack those who sought their hurt; and no one could withstand them, for the fear of them had fallen upon all the people. Indeed, all the officials of the provinces — the satraps, the governors, and the king’s stewards — showed deference to the Jews, because the fear of Mordecai had fallen upon them.

16 Since we are about to celebrate the Festival of Rededication (חנוכה), we are writing to you, advising you to celebrate it as well. 17 God has saved all his people and has restored to all of us our holy land, the kingship, the priesthood, and the Temple services, 18 just as he promised in his Law. He has rescued us from terrible evils and has purified the Temple, and we are confident that in his mercy he will soon gather us to his holy Temple from every nation under the sun.
18 There was an elderly and highly respected teacher of the Law by the name of Eleazar, whose mouth was being forced open to make him eat pork. 19-20 But he preferred an honorable death rather than a life of disgrace. So he spit out the meat and went willingly to the place of torture, showing how people should have courage to refuse unclean food, even if it costs them their lives. 21-22 Those in charge of the sacrifice had been friends of Eleazar for a long time, and because of this friendship they told him privately to bring meat that was lawful for him to eat. He need only pretend to eat the pork, they said, and in this way he would not be put to death, 23 But Eleazar made a decision worthy of his gray hair and advanced age. All his life he had lived in perfect obedience to God's holy laws, so he replied,

“Kill me, here and now. 24 Such deception is not worthy of a man of my years…. 27 If I die bravely now, it will show that I deserved my long life. 28 It will also set a good example of the way young people should be willing and glad to die for our sacred and respected laws.”

31 So Eleazar died. But his courageous death was remembered as a glorious example, not only by young people, but by the entire nation as well.
On another occasion a Jewish mother and her seven sons were arrested. The king was having them beaten to force them to eat pork. Then one of the young men said,

“What do you hope to gain by doing this? We would rather die than abandon the traditions of our ancestors!”

After the first brother had died in this way, the soldiers started amusing themselves with the second one by tearing the hair and skin from his head. Then they asked him, “Now will you eat this pork, or do you want us to chop off your hands and feet one by one?”

He replied in his native language, “I will never eat it!”

Last of all, the mother was put to death.

But I have said enough about the Jews being tortured....
SOME OF THE BIG PROBLEMS WITH ESTHER:

- Absence of God
- Centrality of the Temple and Jerusalem
- Lack of resistance in the name of religion
Addition A

2 In the second year of the reign of Ahasuerus the Great, on the first day of Nisan, Mordecai son of Jair son of Shimei son of Kish, of the tribe of Benjamin, had a dream. 3 He was a Jew living in the city of Susa, a great man, serving in the court of the king. 4 He was one of the captives whom King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon had brought from Jerusalem with King Jeconiah of Judah. And this was his dream: 5 Noises and confusion, thunders and earthquake, tumult on the earth! 6 Then two great dragons came forward, both ready to fight, and they roared terribly. 7 At their roaring every nation prepared for war, to fight against the righteous nation. 8 It was a day of darkness and gloom, of tribulation and distress, affliction and great tumult on the earth! 9 And the whole righteous nation was troubled; they feared the evils that threatened them, and were ready to perish. 10 Then they cried out to God; and at their outcry, as though from a tiny spring, there came a great river, with abundant water; 11 light came, and the sun rose, and the lowly were exalted and devoured those held in honor.

12 Mordecai saw in this dream what God had determined to do, and after he awoke he had it on his mind, seeking all day to understand it in every detail.
Addition F

4 And Mordecai said, “These things have come from God; 5 for I remember the dream that I had concerning these matters, and none of them has failed to be fulfilled. 6 There was the little spring that became a river, and there was light and sun and abundant water—the river is Esther, whom the king married and made queen. 7 The two dragons are Haman and myself. 8 The nations are those that gathered to destroy the name of the Jews. 9 And my nation, this is Israel, who cried out to God and was saved. The Lord has saved his people; the Lord has rescued us from all these evils; God has done great signs and wonders, wonders that have never happened among the nations. 10 For this purpose he made two lots, one for the people of God and one for all the nations, 11 and these two lots came to the hour and moment and day of decision before God and among all the nations. 12 And God remembered his people and vindicated his inheritance. 13 So they will observe these days in the month of Adar, on the fourteenth and fifteenth of that month, with an assembly and joy and gladness before God, from generation to generation forever among his people Israel.”
8 Then Mordecai prayed to the Lord, calling to remembrance all the works of the Lord. 9 He said, “O Lord, Lord, you rule as King over all things, for the universe is in your power and there is no one who can oppose you when it is your will to save Israel, 10 for you have made heaven and earth and every wonderful thing under heaven. 11 You are Lord of all, and there is no one who can resist you, the Lord. 12 You know all things; you know, O Lord, that it was not in insolence or pride or for any love of glory that I did this, and refused to bow down to this proud Haman; 13 for I would have been willing to kiss the soles of his feet to save Israel! 14 But I did this so that I might not set human glory above the glory of God, and I will not bow down to anyone but you, who are my Lord; and I will not do these things in pride. 15 And now, O Lord God and King, God of Abraham, spare your people....
1 Then Queen Esther, seized with deadly anxiety, fled to the Lord. 2 She took off her splendid apparel and put on the garments of distress and mourning, and instead of costly perfumes she covered her head with ashes and dung, and she utterly humbled her body; every part that she loved to adorn she covered with her tangled hair. 3 She prayed to the Lord God of Israel, and said: “O my Lord, you only are our king; help me, who am alone and have no helper but you, 4 for my danger is in my hand. 5 Ever since I was born I have heard in the tribe of my family that you, O Lord, took Israel out of all the nations, and our ancestors from among all their forebears, for an everlasting inheritance, and that you did for them all that you promised. 6 And now we have sinned before you, and you have handed us over to our enemies 7 because we glorified their gods. You are righteous, O Lord! 8 And now they are not satisfied that we are in bitter slavery, but they have covenanted with their idols 9 to abolish what your mouth has ordained, and to destroy your inheritance, to stop the mouths of those who praise you and to quench your altar and the glory of your house, 10 to open the mouths of the nations for the praise of vain idols, and to magnify forever a mortal king.
11 “O Lord, do not surrender your scepter to what has no being; and do not let them laugh at our downfall; but turn their plan against them, and make an example of him who began this against us. 12 Remember, O Lord; make yourself known in this time of our affliction, and give me courage, O King of the gods and Master of all dominion! 13 Put eloquent speech in my mouth before the lion, and turn his heart to hate the man who is fighting against us, so that there may be an end of him and those who agree with him. 14 But save us by your hand, and help me, who am alone and have no helper but you, O Lord. 15 You have knowledge of all things, and you know that I hate the splendor of the wicked and abhor the bed of the uncircumcised and of any alien. 16 You know my necessity—that I abhor the sign of my proud position, which is upon my head on days when I appear in public. I abhor it like a filthy rag, and I do not wear it on the days when I am at leisure. 17 And your servant has not eaten at Haman’s table, and I have not honored the king’s feast or drunk the wine of libations. 18 Your servant has had no joy since the day that I was brought here until now, except in you, O Lord God of Abraham. 19 O God, whose might is over all, hear the voice of the despairing, and save us from the hands of evildoers. And save me from my fear!”

The Jews enjoyed light and gladness, happiness and honor.

And so it should be for us and for the whole world.
